

CONGESTION

Capacity Analysis Results

The existing signalized intersection results in significant delay and queuing, especially in the evening rush hour. If no improvements are made, the congestion in the morning and evening rush hours is anticipated to become worse. With the proposed roundabout alternatives an 80% or greater reduction in delay is anticipated.

Delay Comparison

Roundabouts with Similar Traffic Volumes

